Subject: Invitation to the “7th Macau Symposium on Biomedical Sciences 2021”

Dear Prof. Liang,

The Faculty of Health Sciences (FHS), University of Macau (UM) is organizing the 7th Macau Symposium on Biomedical Sciences 2021 (MSBS2021). I am pleased to invite you to join us as a speaker in this Symposium which will be held on 23 and 24 July 2021.

The theme of the symposium this year is Discovery, with topics on but not limited to diagnostic imaging, drug delivery, cancer immunology, personalized cancer therapy, tumor microenvironment and metastasis, metabolism, developmental induction, single cell, stem cell, epigenetics, infectious diseases, and genome editing.

Because of your outstanding research and high standing in the field, I sincerely hope you would be able to visit us and give a talk about your work in this Symposium. As the invited speaker, FHS will provide a 3-night complimentary on-campus accommodation during the conference period and an honorarium of MOP2,000.00. Your symposium registration fee will also be waived.

Should you have any further enquiries, please contact your host cum session chair, Prof. Wenhua Zheng (wenhuazheng@um.edu.mo). I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Chuxia Deng, Ph.D.
